Chapter 1 by Amy Bolger

outside in the cold freezing was a small boy named Daniel he was only 14 and ran away from home. he hated his dad. he feet dragged them self across the snow surface the snow was up to his knees. he shivered and swore under his breath. " I knew I should bring my long legged bottoms with him " he said sighting he crushed his way around looking for any shelter to keep him warm for the night. his tiny skinny pale and weak body was shivering from the harsh wind of the winter wonderland. he notices an old wooden shack snowed in from the 6 feet of snow he smiled thinking if he could get there he be safe and sound. he walked his way to the log cabin it was snowed up deep to the windows. he dug his way to the window and tried pulling it open. it opened it a creek letting some snow in. he hoped into the cabin and close the window it quite the fire was light and warm. " h..hello anybody in here ? " he yelled scared somebody will answer. he hears a bark from a dog he looked around and there near the fireplace he found the old man dead in his chair and a dog a black pug. he so skinny and looked unwell " poor pup you must be starting " he picked her up and look at her dog tag " Pancake was written on her tag " he smiled okay Pancake it's just me and you then huh the dog barked in response. a loud creek echoed tough the house somebody or something was in here with them...
